

Rockwood Tutor List

The Rockwood Tutor List serves as a resource for parents as they seek additional educational support for their students. It is not intended to serve as an endorsement of any individual. Parents are encouraged to personally contact a prospective tutor to discuss key topics such as:

teacher credentials - teacher experiences - grade levels/content areas of expertise - tutorial plan or curriculum - student achievement assessment - tutorial fee structure

The Board of Education and the District expressly disclaim responsibility and /or liability for the nature, cost, and quality of services rendered on privately-arranged tutorial sessions performed by district employees. The District makes no representation as to the quality of services to be provided. The effectiveness and qualifications of a particular tutor shall be determined solely by the parent. Accordingly, the District and its staff will neither recommend nor evaluate individual tutors.
